

How I keep you informed

The Sunday rhythm

A listing package leave-behind for sellers who want to know what happens after launch.

Monday through Saturday

I log showings, buyer-agent calls, open houses, marketing work, feedback, and market context as it happens.

Sunday evening

You receive The Sunday Beat: what happened, what buyers said, what I did, what it means, and what we do next.

Between Beats

Your seller portal stays available with approved activity and sent reports. Internal notes stay private.

When price needs a conversation

We use the evidence thread you have already been reading, not a surprise opinion dropped in week six.

Sample - co-branding arrives with your account.
