APPROVED

Seller communication guarantee

A one-page promise you sign before the seller signs.

1. A written report every Sunday evening.

The seller receives The Sunday Beat every Sunday evening while the listing is active.

2. Showing feedback with context.

Every showing and material feedback item is logged, translated in plain language, and shared with useful context.

3. A live seller portal.

The seller can open a live view of approved listing activity, sent Beats, and safe summaries.

4. A communication record.

Each sent Beat becomes a record of what was communicated and when it was delivered.
